JOINT MOTION TO DISMISS SUPERVISED RELEASE VIOLATION PETITION

The parties to this action, with the express approval of U.S. Probation Officer Lisa House, jointly move the Court to dismiss the supervised release violation petitions pending against Mr. Smith, and to allow his three year period of supervised release to terminate as scheduled on September 25, 2014.

Mr. Smith has struggled with drug usage during his period of supervised release. His violations, as alleged in the present petition, are all related to marijuana use and treatment. Mr. Smith has completed inpatient drug treatment, and has been generally compliant with the conditions of his supervised release since his release from inpatient treatment.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Ronald C. Small
Attorney for Derrick Smith
